Daily Scriptures

Psalm 147:3

Lamentations 3:19–23

Prayer Focus:

Pray for honest eyes to see the broken pieces in your life—not with judgment, but with truth and tenderness. Ask God for courage to acknowledge where it hurts.

Reflection Questions:

Where in your life do you feel shattered, wounded, or unsettled?

What emotions rise when you admit something in you is broken?

How might God be meeting you in the pieces?

Day 2: Redefining “Good”

Theme: Moving from cultural definitions of “good” to God’s definition of divine intention.

Daily Scriptures

Deuteronomy 32:4

Psalms 119:68

Prayer Focus:

Pray that God reshapes your understanding of “good”—that you would see purpose beyond comfort and intention beyond ease.

Reflection Questions:

How have you defined “good” in your life?

Where have you equated “good” with happiness?

What might it look like to believe that God is good even when life is not?

Day 3: Trusting the Process

Theme: Believing God is arranging, repurposing, and redeeming the pieces.

Daily Scriptures

Philippians 1:6

1 Peter 5:10

Prayer Focus:

Pray for trust in God’s craftsmanship—trust that He is not finished and that the process is purposeful.

Reflection Questions:

What part of your life feels “unfinished”?

Where do you sense God asking you to release control?

How has God completed or redeemed something for you in the past?

Day 4: Seeing God as the Master Artist

Theme: Embracing God as the One who shapes beauty from brokenness.

Daily Scriptures

Psalms 139:13–16

Isaiah 61:3

Prayer Focus:

Pray for the ability to perceive God’s artistry at work in your life. Ask Him to help you trust His hands even when the canvas looks chaotic.

Reflection Questions:

Where do you see hints of beauty emerging in your story?

What areas still feel like “ashes”?

How might God be painting something larger than you can currently see?

Day 5: Taste and See

Theme: Learning to perceive God’s goodness along the journey.

Daily Scriptures

Nahum 1:7

James 1:2–4

Prayer Focus:

Pray to “taste and see” that the Lord is good—not because your circumstances are perfect, but because God is present, intentional, and working.

Reflection Questions:

Where have you tasted bitterness in this season?

In what ways can you identify God’s presence within that bitterness?

What signs of God’s goodness can you acknowledge today?
